JUNE 2019

People who live in Pierce Transit's service area and park at Tacoma Dome Station (TDS) will have a reserved parking option beginning July 1, 2019.

This pilot program was created in response to increased parking demand at TDS, where parking spots are often filled before the end of the weekday morning commute. Optional reserved parking permits will go on sale around June 1, 2019. After the program has been operating for several months, data will be reviewed, and program adjustments may be made, if needed.

Optional Parking Permits

To begin, Pierce Transit will sell permits for up to 200 reserved spots, totaling 8.4 percent of the 2,400 spots. Reserved spots will be free (with a permit) for high-occupancy vehicles with 2+ riders arriving at TDS together; $80 per month for single-occupancy drivers; and $27 per month for those who qualify for an ORCA LIFT card. A permit will give you dedicated parking access on weekdays during the morning rush hours of 4am-9am. Permitted spots will be open to all parkers after 9am and on weekends (except during special events), and the remaining 2,200 free parking spots will remain open on a first-come, first-served basis as they have been in the past. During special events, all those parking in the garage must pay the special event fee, and the permitted spots have no reserved status.
