

Apply Now for the ORCA LIFT Reduced Fare Card Program

Now there's a more affordable way to take Pierce Transit to get where you need to go!

How Does ORCA LIFT Work?

You can qualify for the ORCA LIFT program to pay a reduced adult fare if you meet the income eligibility requirements up to, or equal to, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL). Qualified riders will also be able to save on many other participating agencies' services in the Puget Sound region as well. Acceptable forms will be required to validate your eligibility.

Only $1 per one-way trip!

Pierce Transit accepts ORCA LIFT adult fare payments on bus and Runner services. Now it's more affordable for you to get to work, school, or anywhere you need to go on public transit. With ORCA LIFT, qualified adult riders will pay $1 per one-way trip on Pierce Transit. Enjoy the convenience of an ORCA card, at a lower price.

Easy ways to add value!

- You are responsible for loading your ORCA LIFT card with E-purse value or a transit pass with myORCA app, online or in person.
- Your initial ORCA LIFT card is free; a card will last for up to two years. Replacements are $3.
- See where you can use cash, debit/credit cards or checks to add value. Visit info.myORCA.com/adding-value/ or call 253.581.8000, option 2, then option 1.

Other ways to save:

- ORCA LIFT fares are available on many participating agencies' services in the Puget Sound region.
- Riders can also save on parking permits for select Sound Transit and King County Metro park-and-ride lots.
- Reduced fares are also available for seniors and riders with disabilities. Youth 18 and under ride for free!
